MATH WARS

Welcome to OCMA 2017! The Ontario Colleges Mathematics Association welcomes you to Conference #37. This is a conference revolving around “wars” and debates. We have two keynote debates on this topic along with lots of presentations set up along the same argumentative lines. We have a full gamut of publishers who will present and show off their products. Come out to the conference ready to share your teaching experiences in your classes! Hear others talk about their successes and issues! The OCMA executive committee encourages you to seize this opportunity to come together, share, learn, and enjoy. See you at the conference!
